

“
BROADWAY MEETS
MADISON SQUARE GARDEN
”

— The Irish Voice

MAXINE LINEHAN ONE: THE SONGS OF U2

Heralded by the New York Times as “fiercely talented,” the international concert and recording artist Maxine Linehan has performed for thousands at some of the world’s most prestigious and intimate venues. From the iconic Théâtre du Châtelet in Paris to New York’s Lincoln Center and The Town Hall, to Feinstein’s/54 Below, and Birdland, Linehan’s enormous vocal strength combined with her ability to emotionally engage with her audience is unparalleled.

Already considered the premiere interpreter of the U2 songbook, in her solo concert ONE: THE SONGS OF U2, Linehan breaks new ground with a unique, lyrically driven orchestral show devoted to the work of this world-famous band. The extraordinary songs written by Bono and U2 find a new voice in a concert that holds to the beautiful melodic lines of the songs, while bringing the lyrics forward into a fresh light. With stunning orchestrations by Ryan Shirar, Linehan continues her mission of providing audiences with the unexpected experience of hearing U2’s famous songs as if for the first time — while always being true to the heart and soul of each time-honored hit.

Performing U2’s smash hits like Beautiful Day, Sunday Bloody Sunday, Where The Streets Have No Name, Pride, One, With Or Without You, Bad, Sometimes You Can’t Make It On Your Own, Walk On and more!

“Fiercely talented...she takes favorites that you thought you knew and infuses them with an intensely personal point of view.”

— The New York Times

“Megawatt Talent...Pitch Perfect...In One, The Songs of U2, Linehan returns with an all-new Broadway meets Madison Square Garden centered show, while igniting the unforgettable fire that made U2 the world’s biggest band in the first place.”

— The Irish Voice

“Ranging from pop singer to chanteuse, the Irish native runs the gamut with extraordinary ease from the American Songbook to a rock favorite... A remarkable voice and talent.”

— The Huffington Post

CLICK HERE
to watch the official music video of ONE

ONE: THE SONGS OF U2

SET LIST & BAND CONFIGURATION

SET LIST INLCUDES

Beautiful Day

New York

Where The Streets Have No Name

Sunday Bloody Sunday

Still Haven't Found What I'm Looking For

Pride

Stuck In The Moment

Bad

Sometimes You Can't Make it On Your Own

Angel of Harlem

City Of Blinding Lights

Walk On

One

BAND CONFIGURATION

Piano (MD)

Violin

2 cellos

Electric guitar

Electric and Upright Bass

Drums

Symphonic available on request

BOOKING ENQUIRIES